Dine, Shop, Antique, Stay...

Enjoy LeClaire year-round with dining, shopping, special events, and attractions!

LeClaire has dining experiences that will suit your mood, including gourmet cuisine, comfort food, fast food or home-cooked local favorites. Almost all the dining options have spectacular river views!

Shop LeClaire's historic downtown. The unique stores offer a wide selection including decorative and functional items, such as clothing, accessories, art, furniture and much more.

Discover great antique, vintage and collectible pieces at our diverse shops. Appraisals are available at some of the antique stores, too. There is something for everyone!

LeClaire has a variety of lodging choices offering all the modern amenities expected by today's traveler. Hotels are conveniently located near I-80 and quaint guest houses are found in the historic downtown.

LeClaire Map_OUTSIDE p1.jpg

LeClaire is one of Iowa's most beautiful hidden treasures. Relax along the scenic streets of this historic river town that exudes turn-of-the-century charm and elegance. Located just a few short miles north of the Quad Cities on the Mississippi River, LeClaire offers an experience that will last a lifetime.

Dine, shop, antique, tour the attractions, and stay overnight! Find out why LeClaire has been voted "The Best Place to Take an Out-of-town Guest" and earned the distinction of being one of the "10 Coolest Small Towns in America"! It's all there… in LeClaire!

Events

Join us the evening of every First Friday of the month for food, spirits, and wine sampling, shopping, dining, and live entertainment. Enjoy Eagle Watching in the Winter, pelicans in the Spring, Car Shows, Tug Fest and sightseeing cruises in the Summer, Apple Fest in the Fall, and Christmas in LeClaire the first full weekend of December, just to name some of the fun things going on in LeClaire year round!

Attractions

Antique Archaeology
American Pickers ranks among the most popular and talked-about shows on television. Two buildings house their best picks and merchandise and serve as the home base for the History Channel's American Pickers.

Buffalo Bill Museum
William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody (1846-1917) was born in LeClaire, Iowa. His career as a frontiersman, U.S. Army Scout, and later as a showman touring throughout the United States and Europe with his "Wild West Congress" show has made him a favorite. Also see the only surviving example in the United States of a wooden-hulled boat built in the traditional Western Rivers fashion along with many other interesting exhibits.

Levee on the Mississippi River
Enjoy the beautiful river view, launch your boat, have a picnic, or take in an event — all on the easy to access Levee.

Riverboat Twilight
Depart from LeClaire to Port of Dubuque, overnight, and then return to LeClaire aboard the most elegant riverboat to be launched in the last 100 years. Enjoy wildlife, towering bluffs and historic river towns and experience life on the Mississippi River. May to October, enjoy 1.5 hour sightseeing cruises on special weekends in LeClaire.

Pebble Creek Golf Course
A beautifully groomed public golf course is welcoming for everyday play.

Scott County Freedom Rock
Located on the south end of the LeClaire Levee, the 7.5 ton boulder with a colorful mural is a memorial to all veterans, active military and first responders. It is part of the 99 county Iowa Freedom Rock Tour, www.thefreedomrock.com.

Libations Lane

Green Tree Brewery
Enjoy a craft beer in the new brewery with a spectacular river view and outdoor seating. Sample Doc's Blondie, Buffalo Spit, or Hop Along Casually from the 13 beers on tap.

Mississippi River Distilling Company & Cody Road Cocktail House
See in person the handcrafted artistry used in creating exceptional, small batch spirits from "grain to glass." Tours and samples on the hour every day 12-4 p.m. Also, enjoy cocktails by the glass and the great river view from their patio.

Wide River Winery Tasting Room
Sample award-winning, locally-made wines in the charming tasting room located just one block north of the American Pickers. Enjoy live music in the courtyard during the warm months!
